Items are needed to sell at the boutique. Following are some ideas:

- Baby items,
- Aprons and pot holders,
- Potato and corn bags,
- Cozies for cups or bowls to cook in microwave,
- Coasters,
- Placemats,
- Wine and gift bags,
- Pillow cases,
- Knit or crocheted dish cloths,
- Pot holders,
- Pin cushions,
- Sewing bags.

These are just some of the ideas. Use your imagination. Everyone did such a good job of coming up with idea's for the last show.

Cedarburg, Wisconsin

Dear Quilt Guild Members,

Please accept our invitation to join us at our quilt show! The North Shore Quilt Guild members stage this show every-other-year and this is the first time we will stage it at the Ozaukee County Fairgrounds in Cedarburg.

August 1, 2017

We are co-ordinating our show with The Wisconsin Museum of Quilts and Fiber Arts so that attendees can receive a discounted admission to both the show and the Museum. Admission to the show is $5 with children under 12 admitted free. The special offer allows visitors to go to the show and the Museum for $8.

We are also partnering with several shops and restaurants in Cedarburg, so a visit to our show can give your residents a reason to explore the whole area. This list will be available at the quilt show.

Bring a bus full! We'd love to see you at our 2017 quilt show.

For additional information: Northshorequiltersguild.org

Thank you for considering our request that you add our quilt show to your list of 2017 activities!!!

Subject: Quilting Query

I hope this is Betty Lerner's email. I am an American quilter born in Milwaukee. I've been living in Ireland since 2003. I occasionally come back to Milwaukee for a visit. I'm looking for a quilting pen pal and wondered if anyone in your group, West Suburban Quilters' Guild, would be interested in an Irish pen pal. If you have several takers, I could ask at the 2 quilting groups that I belong to if anyone else here in Ireland would be interested. I looked at your group's website and it's quite impressive. It looks like you have a lot of advanced quilters putting out lovely quilts. I look forward to your response.
Thanks, Marilyn Farrell
